Teen Extreme Camp

We took eleven teens from the Hispanic church to Teen Extreme Camp in Pensacola, Fl. It was a wonderful week as Dr. Kenny Baldwin preached powerful messages from God’s Word. Three of our teens were saved, one of which is standing next to Brother Baldwin, who is from Cuba. All made some decision, whether it was about their music or reading their Bible, etc.

Kenny Baldwin’s son, Deonte, took an interest in our teens and spoke to them one afternoon in the Commons. Upon learning that George was not saved he began to pray for him and the last night approached him during the invitation. George put his faith in the Lord Jesus. When his dad asked him how camp was, he broke down crying and said that he wanted to live for God and had already taken some music off his phone. Immediately he asked to be baptized.

The 3 in the center made decisions concerning their music.

Adrian, on the left of the three in the center, goes soul winning with me. Alex, in the middle, went to Arizona immediately after camp. He since has told me that he bought some of Brother Kenny Baldwin’s messages on cd to take to his brother in prison. His brother is learning from the preaching and wants to come to Memphis when he gets out and attend our church.

Pray for all of the teens that they will follow through with their commitments and have a fruitful life for the Lord. Thank you for your prayers!
